RICHARDS WON A GAME

The East Liverpool Team Suffered Its First Defeat.

M'SHANE PITCHED VERY WELL

In fact He Pitched so Well That the Visitors, the Grandstand and the Bleachers Were Surprised—Good Fielding of the Home Club.

The East Liverpool club made an attempt to play four games with the J. G. Richards team on Friday and Saturday, but only succeeded in playing two, losing one and winning one.

The game on Friday opened with a good attendance, and Liverpool took the lead at the start, and at the end of the third inning the score stood 6 to 2 in their favor. After the Richards had been shut out in the first half of the fourth, and McShane had struck out for Liverpool, the rain came down in torrents, and in a short time the diamond looked like a river. The game was declared off. Frank, the pitcher for the Richards, was hit by a pitched ball while at bat in the second inning, and was compelled to retire in favor of Crow.

In the first inning of the morning game the visitors were shut out and Liverpool scored 5. There came near being a fight in this inning, caused by C. Reark attempting to interfere with the ball while being run down between third and home, for which play he was called out. Reark tried to jump and hit the ball with his head, which action so angered Brown, the shortstop of the Richards team, that he caught Reark and held him, while the players of both teams gathered around the two men, several blows being struck. The disturbance was soon settled, and the Richards made one run in the second. It began to rain before the half was finished, and this game was also declared off.

In the afternoon two games were played, the first being a walk over for Liverpool, owing to the masterly pitching of McShane, and the unusually fine fielding and batting of the home team. The feat of McShane, by holding the Richards down to one hit in 7 innings, is one that has seldom been equaled on the home grounds. The score:

The second game went to the visitors, who administered the first defeat of the season to the Liverpool club. The loss of the game is due to Turner, who pitched a good game, but fielded his position in a very poor way, being responsible for a greater part of the runs made by the Richards. An effort was made to retrieve the game in the seventh inning by changing the battery, and putting in McShane and Lynch, but this only made matters worse, as McShane hit two men, gave one base on balls and had two wild pitches, and the visitors scored four unearned runs. BLAND GETS ALTGELD.

Illinois to Cast Her Vote For Him For President.

CHICAGO, July 6, (Special).—There is a great crowd in Chicago today, and the convention will be attended by thousands. The Illinois delegation held a meeting at noon, and decided that Illinois should cast her 48 votes for Bland for president. This assures Bland of Altgeld's support, and Altgeld is the greatest man in Chicago this afternoon.

Bridge Men Make Life Interesting on Smoky.

A party made up of employees of the bridge were drunk near Second and Union streets on Friday night, and soon began to fight. It was a general rough and tumble in which every man's hand seemed against every other man. When one was knocked down the others amused themselves by kicking him, and the row continued until they grew weary. At 6 o'clock Saturday morning another fight occurred near the same place, but there were no arrests.

BROKE ITS NECK.

The Fatal Termination of a Somersault.

William Tucker, of California Hollow, mourns the loss of a fine 2-year-old colt which broke its neck Saturday morning. Mr. Tucker had turned the colt out to graze on the hillside, and had tied it to a tree by a long rope. The animal in some unaccountable manner became tangled in the tether, and in its efforts to extricate itself turned a complete somersault, alighting on its head and breaking its neck.

MULLEN CRIED

When a Horse Stepped on Him Near Sheridan Avenue.

A small boy named Mullen, while playing hide and seek with a number of other lads last night in the bushes on an open lot on Sheridan avenue, was trampled on by a horse. It was in charge of a lad named Hailes, who was driving a cow from the lot. The boy was in hiding, and was not seen until the horse stepped on him and caused him to utter a cry of pain. Mullen was not very badly hurt.

DIED SUDDENLY.

John Mellinsky Passed Away on Friday Night.

John Mellinsky, who lived near the Diamond, died suddenly at his home Friday night. Deceased had been ill for the past two years with dropsy, but his demise was not expected so soon. Funeral services were held at St. Aloysius church yesterday and interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Deceased was 52 years of age and a tailor by occupation. He leaves a wife.

TO LAY THE CORNER STONE.

Special Services at the Lutheran Church, July 19.

In two weeks the foundation of the new German Lutheran church will be finished, and on Sunday afternoon, July 19, the corner stone will be laid amid appropriate ceremonies. The choir are rehearsing for the event and a specially prepared program will be given. A number of visiting clergymen will also be in attendance, and will make addresses.

PARADED THE STREETS.

The Athletic Club Started on Their Trip in Style.

Headed by a drum corps and arrayed in plug hats and dusters, the members of the East Liverpool Athletic club paraded the streets before leaving for Tuscarawas county. They have selected a pleasant place in which to pitch their tents, and anticipate a delightful outing.

HAVE MONEY TO BURN

Highwaymen Have a Good Thing of It.

ANOTHER PEACEFUL MAN ROBBED

Held Up on Sixth Street He Was Compelled to Give Them What He Had—His Watch Returned, But the Money Went Into Their Pockets—Another Burglary.

Another case of hold-up which occurred on last Tuesday, has just come to light, as the police have been trying to suppress the affair.

On Tuesday evening, about 10:15, Charles Schaub, the well known electrician, was out walking with a lady friend on Sixth street. He had reached the corner of Sixth and Monroe streets, directly under the electric light, when two fellows, neither of them masked, walked up and scrutinized him closely. After they had finished their scrutiny one of the said: "I believe we are mistaken," and the two went across the street, while Schaub continued on his walk. Glancing across the street he saw the two fellows had been joined by a third man, who was masked and had been laying back of a fence, while the others were looking at their victim. The three then crossed the street and ordered Schaub to hold up his hands.

While the two unmasked men covered him with revolvers the fellow went through his pockets, taking between $5 and $6 and his watch and chain. As the watch and chain was a present from his mother Schaub begged the highway robbers to give it back to him, which they finally did. They then ordered the robbed man and his lady to walk on and not look back, or they would shoot. After taking his lady home Schaub borrowed a lamp and went back to the scene of the robbery to see if he could find any money, as he had dropped $8 on the ground when he pulled his hands out of his pockets, but the thieves were not clever enough, and he found the money.

On last Thursday evening thieves entered the cellar of Daniel McNicol's residence, at the corner of Fifth and Monroe streets, and completely gutted it, taking four dozen eggs, a whole ham, several pies, eight bottles of wine and several other articles. The thieves were evidently those who knew the lay of the house, for they made no attempt to effect an entrance into any other part of the residence, but must have got just what they went after.

While the family were away, last Saturday, thieves entered the residence of William Temple, in Drury Lane. They stole $12, and escaped without their identity becoming known.

THE POWDER EXPLODED.

George Shaw Had a Narrow Escape While Celebrating.

George Shaw, the 8-year-old son of George Shaw, of Huston's addition, was severely burned on Saturday afternoon. The boy had been celebrating the Fourth by placing powder in a box, and then lighting a fuse, and letting it explode. He had placed the powder in the box and fired the fuse as usual, but it failed to go off, and thinking the fuse had gone out he walked to the box and stooped over to pull the fuse out. Then the powder went off. His hands and face were badly burned, and a physician was summoned to find the extent of his injuries and to relieve the pain. Although the boy was directly over the powder when it exploded, his eyes were not touched, and beyond having a swollen face he is feeling as well as usual today.

A NEW GRAVEYARD.

The Health Authorities Must Hunt Another.

For some time the board of health have been burying dead animals on the river beach of the Gaston property, below West End park, unknown to the owner of the land. They will now have to hunt another place as Gaston notified them on Friday to stop. Mr. Gaston was seen this morning, and was highly indignant over the affair. He said: "They never received my permission to bury dead animals there, and as the railroad company merely bought the right of way through the ground they could not have given the board the right which they seem to have taken. There are now several dead horses half covered lying on the beach, and as I have been paying taxes on the ground for a number of years, of course I propose to have it stopped."

HIT THE WRONG MAN.

One Instance Where Virtue Had No Just Reward.

A West Virginia lad got himself into trouble Saturday night, although he was entirely innocent of any wrong doing. An old gentleman was standing in the Diamond, and during the discharge of fireworks, his coat was set on fire. The young man from across the river noticed this, and rushing forward attempted to put out the fire. But the old man not understanding the cause of the youth's actions, turned and dealt him a powerful blow, knocking him down. The lad's face was bruised and when the matter was explained to the aged one, he did not feel disposed to offer an apology for his hasty act.

NO MEETING.

The Board of Health Could Not Gather a Quorum on Friday.

The board of health failed to hold a meeting Friday evening, as Kauffman was the only member appearing at city hall.

When the meeting is held Sanitary Policeman King's report will show that 79 nuisances have been abated; 31 people are violating the ordinance prohibiting the throwing of refuse in alleys, and that he has paid $2.50 out of his salary to have dead animals buried. The health officer's report is as follows: Births—Males, 14; females, 11. Deaths—Males, 2; females, 5. Two of the deaths were caused by heart disease and one by consumption. During the month one case of typhoid and four of measles were reported.

THE CHILDREN THROWN OUT.

But Not One Was Hurt in an Exciting Runaway.

Early Saturday morning a coal team driven by George Reed became frightened by fire crackers, and started out Fourth street at a rapid rate. Reaching Union they turned down the hill, still going at a high speed. When they came to the corner of Second street the team struck a buggy belonging to Bagley, in which were seated four children. The buggy was overturned and the children thrown out, but they escaped injury and the vehicle was not damaged to any extent. The team did not stop, but turned up the alley by the meat house, and were finally captured by John Rinehart.

INSULTED A LADY.

Heckathorn Should be Given a Salty Dose.

Heckathorn, the young man who is wanted by the police, was walking along Sixth street with a companion the other evening when he met Mrs. Douglass, wife of the well known superintendent of the glass works. Heckathorn's friend had a pair of bruised and blackened eyes, and as Mrs. Douglass glanced at them in wonder, the young tough broke out. His language was of the vilest, and he cursed and swore like a mad man. The lady hurried away as soon as possible, but Heckathorn continued his vile abuse as long as she was in hearing.

THEY CELEBRATED.

A Spontaneous Observance of the Great Day.

The Fourth was not observed with a great amount of noise in the city, but toward evening there was a general awakening. Displays of fireworks at private residences were good, but the crowd gathered on Washington street to see the Columbian and Phoenix clubs celebrate. The display was not a studied effort, but the explosion of 300 or 400 packages of crackers, together with the boom of the larger ones and the flight of rockets, made it interesting for a time.

CLEAR THE STEPS.

Disgraceful Scenes Frequently Witnessed on Broadway.

The attention of the police is called to the steps of a place of amusement on Broadway, where disgraceful scenes are frequently witnessed. The other evening a gentleman saw a young couple acting in a manner that would have put them in jail in almost any other town on earth, and was so exasperated that he called out to them, receiving in reply an insult. Those steps should be cleared and an example made of the young toughs who frequent them.

AMPUTATION NOT NECESSARY.

But John McKnight Has a Very Sore Arm.

John McKnight, engineer at Brunt's knob works, cleaned the boilers at the plant on Saturday, and now he has a very sore arm. He was attaching the safety apparatus to the boiler when the gas ignited from a torch, and there was a loud explosion. McKnight was badly burned, one of his arms being severely injured. At first it was thought the burns would necessitate the amputation of the arm, but it is thought now that it can be saved.

At once, good intelligent boy, not less than 15 years of years of age, to learn the printing craft. Must come well recommended.

FELL BY THE WAYSIDE

A Few Drunks Could Not Keep Out of Jail.

ONE BIG FIGHT ON BROADWAY

Several Men Engaged, but Only Two Arrested—The Mayor Was Lenient, but They Had Little Money, and are Still in the Coop.

The glorious Fourth was celebrated in a number of ways, and not a few observed the day in a decidedly unpatrician manner, and ended it in jail. Constables Lyon and Bertelle figured prominently in gathering in evil doers, each making two arrests.

Robert Craven, who is well known at city hall, got very full Saturday night, and insisted upon displaying his abilities as a song and dance artist in the Diamond. Constable Bertelle ordered Craven to go home, but he refused and was taken to the jail. He put up security for his appearance, and was released yesterday. Tony also arrested Peter Devine, whom he found a few hours later, lying in a drunken state near the Horn switch. Devine was taken down in the patrol. Constable Lyons arrested John Carney and S. S. Smith. Carney was found in company with a woman in a box car, and was charged with disorderly conduct. Smith was arrested for failing to support his family, but was released upon a promise to do better, and pay the costs of the case. Samuel Martin Jr., was drunk and disorderly when taken in custody.

Friday night a number of bridge employees got into a fight at the foot of Broadway, and John O'Brien, one of the principals, was badly used up receiving a number of cuts on the head. The patrol was called and Officer Terrence arrested O'Brien and another person, who was concerned in the fracas, and gave the fictitious name of John Slum. A physician was called to examine O'Brien's injuries, and found them painful, but not of a serious nature. This morning the inmates of the cells were heard and each was fined $7, with the exception of Martin, who got $3 and costs. Being without funds all are still in jail.

BIT BY BURROWS.

A Lisbon Row in Which a Liverpool Man Figured.

LISBON, July 6, (Special).—East Liverpool was represented here in a row on Sunday. Dick Burrows, Jr., who is well known, began to fight with a local man, whose name can not be learned, over some trifling matter. Burrows bit off the ear of his opponent, and fled. The police learned of the fight, but could find neither of the participants.

WALLING TO HANG.

The Date of the Execution Was Set Today.

NEWPORT, Ky., July 6, (Special).—Walling, the man who was recently convicted of the brutal murder of Pearl Bryan, near this place, will be hanged on August 7. Sentence was pronounced this morning, and Walling grew white as the words were uttered.

The Depot Collapsed.

WHEELING, July 6, (Special).—The Baltimore and Ohio depot in this place has just collapsed. It was built over the creek, and when the building went down several cars went with it. No one was hurt.

Edward Zink Very Ill.

Edward Zink, corner Fourth and Market streets, was taken seriously ill Saturday, and for a time it was feared he would die. A physician was hastily called, and succeeded in getting him out of danger.

Decided the Case.

The case of George Kauffman against Daniel Davidson for forcible detention of property was heard by Squire Manley this morning. It was decided in favor of the plaintiff, and a writ of restitution issued.

Williams in the first inning made a fine catch of Carey's fly, running through the water in right field to get it. He was heartily applauded for the play by the grandstand, and when he came to the bat in the third inning he was compelled to lift his cap.

Umpire McShane made a record for himself by his impartial decisions.

The Eclipse team won three games at Sharon, by scores of 8 to 7, 8 to 0 and 10 to 7.

The Columbus, of East End, lost one and won one at New Waterford, being defeated by a score of 13 to 2 in the morning, and winning the afternoon game 14 to 13.

BLAND GETS ALTGELD.

Illinois to Cast Her Vote For Him For President.

CHICAGO, July 6, [Special.]—There is a great crowd in Chicago today, and the convention will be attended by thousands. The Illinois delegation held a meeting at noon, and decided that Illinois should cast her 48 votes for Bland for president. This assures Bland of Altgeld's support, and Altgeld is the greatest man in Chicago this afternoon.

Bridge Men Make Life Interesting on Smoky.

A party made up of employees of the bridge were drunk near Second and Union streets on Friday night, and soon began to fight. It was a general row and tumble in which every man's hand seemed against every other man. When one was knocked down the others amused themselves by kicking him, and the row continued until they grew weary. At 6 o'clock Saturday morning another fight occurred near the same place, but there were no arrests.

BROKE ITS NECK.

The Fatal Termination of a Somersault.

William Tucker, of California Hollow, mourns the loss of a fine 2-year-old colt which broke its neck Saturday morning. Mr. Tucker had turned the colt out to graze on the hillside, and had tied it to a tree by a long rope. The animal in some unaccountable manner became tangled in the tether, and in its efforts to extricate itself turned a complete somersault, alighting on its head and breaking its neck.

MULLEN CRIED

When a Horse Stepped on Him Near Sheridan Avenue.

A small boy named Mullen, while playing hide and seek with a number of other lads last night in the bushes on an open lot on Sheridan avenue, was trampled on by a horse. It was in charge of a lad named Hailes, who was driving a cow from the lot. The boy was in hiding, and was not seen until the horse stepped on him and caused him to utter a cry of pain. Mullen was not very badly hurt.

Funeral services were held at St Aloysius church yesterday and interment was in the Catholic cemetery. Deceased was 52 years of age and a tailor by occupation. He leaves a wife.

HAVE MONEY TO BURN

Highwaymen Have a Good Thing of It.

ANOTHER PEACEFUL MAN ROBBED

Held Up on Sixth Street He Was Compelled to Give Them What He Had—His Watch Returned, But the Money Went Into Their Pockets—Another Burglary.

Another case of hold-up which occurred on last Tuesday, has just come to light, as the police have been trying to suppress the affair.

On Tuesday evening, about 10:15, Charles Schaub, the well known electrician, was out walking with a lady friend on Sixth street. He had reached the corner of Sixth and Monroe streets, directly under the electric light, when two fellows, neither of them masked, walked up and scrutinized him closely. After they had finished their scrutiny one of the said: "I believe we are mistaken," and the two went across the street, while Schaub continued on his walk. Glancing across the street he saw the two fellows had been joined by a third man, who was masked and had been laying back of a fence, while the others were looking at their victim. The three then crossed the street and ordered Schaub to hold up his hands.

While the two unmasked men covered him with revolvers the fellow went through his pockets, taking between $5 and $6 and his watch and chain. As the watch and chain was a present from his mother Schaub begged the highway robbers to give it back to him, which they finally did. They then ordered the robbed man and his lady to walk on and not look back, or they would shoot. After taking his lady home Schaub borrowed a lamp and went back to the scene of the robbery to see if he could find any money, as he had dropped $5 on the ground when he pulled his hands out of his pockets, but the thieves were not clever enough, and he found the money.

On last Thursday evening thieves entered the cellar of Daniel McNicol's residence, at the corner of Fifth and Monroe streets, and completely gutted it, taking four dozen eggs, a whole ham, several pies, eight bottles of wine and several other articles. The thieves were evidently those who knew the lay of the house, for they made no attempt to effect an entrance into any other part of the residence, but must have got just what they went after.

While the family were away, last Saturday, thieves entered the residence of William Temple, in Drury Lane. They stole $12, and escaped without their identity becoming known.

THE POWDER EXPLODED.

George Shaw Had a Narrow Escape While Celebrating.

George Shaw, the 8-year-old son of George Shaw, of Huston's addition, was severely burned on Saturday afternoon. The boy had been celebrating the Fourth by placing powder in a box, and then lighting a fuse, and letting it explode. He had placed the powder in the box and fired the fuse as usual, but it failed to go off, and thinking the fuse had gone out he walked to the box and stooped over to pull the fuse out. Then the powder went off. His hands and face were badly burned, and a physician was summoned to find the extent of his injuries and to relieve the pain. Although the boy was directly over the powder when it exploded, his eyes were not touched, and beyond having a swollen face he is feeling as well as usual today.

A NEW GRAVEYARD.

The Health Authorities Must Hunt Another.

For some time the board of health have been burying dead animals on the river beach of the Gaston property, below West End park, unknown to the owner of the land. They will now have to hunt another place as Gaston notified them on Friday to stop. Mr. Gaston was seen this morning, and was highly indignant over the affair. He said: "They never received my permission to bury dead animals there, and as the railroad company merely bought the right of way through the ground they could not have given the board the right which they seem to have taken. There are now several dead horses half covered lying on the beach, and as I have been paying taxes on the ground for a number of years, of course I propose to have it stopped."

HIT THE WRONG MAN.

One Instance Where Virtue Had No Just Reward.

A West Virginia lad got himself into trouble Saturday night, although he was entirely innocent of any wrong doing. An old gentleman was standing in the Diamond, and during the discharge of fireworks, his coat was set on fire. The young man from across the river noticed this, and rushing forward attempted to put out the fire. But the old man not understanding the cause of the youth's actions, turned and dealt him a powerful blow, knocking him down. The lad's face was bruised and when the matter was explained to the aged one, he did not feel disposed to offer an apology for his hasty act.

NO MEETING.

The Board of Health Could not Gather a Quorum on Friday.

The board of health failed to hold a meeting Friday evening, as Kauffman was the only member appearing at city hall.

When the meeting is held Sanitary Policeman King's report will show that 79 nuisances have been abated; 31 people are violating the ordinance prohibiting the throwing of refuse in alleys, and that he has paid $2.50 out of his salary to have dead animals buried. The health officer's report is as follows: Births—Males, 14; females, 11. Deaths—Males, 2; females, 5. Two of the deaths were caused by heart disease and one by consumption. During the month one case of typhoid and four of measles were reported.

THE CHILDREN THROWN OUT.

But Not One Was Hurt in an Exciting Runaway.

Early Saturday morning a coal team driven by George Reed became frightened by fire crackers, and started out Fourth street at a rapid rate. Reaching Union they turned down the hill, still going at a high speed. When they came to the corner of Second street the team struck a buggy belonging to Bagley, in which were seated four children. The buggy was overturned and the children thrown out, but they escaped injury and the vehicle was not damaged to any extent. The team did not stop, but turned up the alley by the meat house, and were finally captured by John Rinehart.

INSULTED A LADY.

Heckathorn Should be Given a Salty Dose.

Heckathorn, the young man who is wanted by the police, was walking along Sixth street with a companion the other evening when he met Mrs. Douglass, wife of the well known superintendent of the glass works. Heckathorn's friend had a pair of bruised and blackened eyes, and as Mrs. Douglass glanced at them in wonder, the young tough broke out. His language was of the vilest, and he cursed and swore like a mad man. The lady hurried away as soon as possible, but Heckathorn continued his vile abuse as long as she was in hearing.

THEY CELEBRATED.

A Spontaneous Observance of the Great Day.

The Fourth was not observed with a great amount of noise in the city, but toward evening there was a general awakening. Displays of fireworks at private residences were good, but the crowd gathered on Washington street to see the Columbian and Phoenix clubs celebrate. The display was not a studied effort, but the explosion of 300 or 400 packages of crackers, together with the boom of the larger ones and the flight of rockets, made it interesting for a time.

CLEAR THE STEPS.

Disgraceful Scenes Frequently Witnessed on Broadway.

The attention of the police is called to the steps of a place of amusement on Broadway, where disgraceful scenes are frequently witnessed. The other evening a gentleman saw a young couple acting in a manner that would have put them in jail in almost any other town on earth, and was so exasperated that he called out to them, receiving in reply an insult. Those steps should be cleared and an example made of the young toughs who frequent them.

AMPUTATION NOT NECESSARY.

But John McKnight Has a Very Sore Arm.

John McKnight, engineer at Brant's knob works, cleaned the boilers at the plant on Saturday, and now he has a very sore arm. He was attaching the safety apparatus to the boiler when the gas ignited from a torch, and there was a loud explosion. McKnight was badly burned, one of his arms being severely injured. At first it was thought the burns would necessitate the amputation of the arm, but it is thought now that it can be saved.

FELL BY THE WAYSIDE

A Few Drunks Could Not Keep Out of Jail.

ONE BIG FIGHT ON BROADWAY

Several Men Engaged, but Only Two Arrested—The Mayor Was Lenient, but They Had Little Money, and are Still in the Coop.

The glorious Fourth was celebrated in a number of ways, and not a few observed the day in a decidedly unpatriotic manner, and ended it in jail. Constables Lyon and Bertelle figured prominently in gathering in evil doers, each making two arrests.

Robert Craven, who is well known at city hall, got very full Saturday night, and insisted upon displaying his abilities as a song and dance artist in the Diamond. Constable Bertelle ordered Craven to go home, but he refused and was taken to the jail. He put up security for his appearance, and was released yesterday. Tony also arrested Peter Devine, whom he found a few hours later, lying in a drunken state near the Horn switch. Devine was taken down in the patrol. Constable Lyons arrested John Carney and S. S. Smith. Carney was found in company with a woman in a box car, and was charged with disorderly conduct. Smith was arrested for failing to support his family, but was released upon a promise to do better, and pay the costs of the case. Samuel Martin Jr., was drunk and disorderly when taken in custody.

Friday night a number of bridge employees got into a fight at the foot of Broadway, and John O'Brien, one of the principals, was badly used up receiving a number of cuts on the head. The patrol was called and Officer Terrence arrested O'Brien and another person, who was concerned in the fracas, and gave the fictitious name of John Slum. A physician was called to examine O'Brien's injuries, and found them painful, but not of a serious nature. This morning the inmates of the cells were heard and each was fined, $7, with the exception of Martin, who got $5 and costs. Being without funds all are still in jail.

LISBON, July 6, [Special.]—East Liverpool was represented here in a row on Sunday. Dick Burrows, Jr., who is well known, began to fight with a local man, whose name can not be learned, over some trifling matter. Burrows bit off the ear of his opponent, and fled. The police learned of the fight, but could find neither of the participants.

If it be possible to inflict such a penalty, then Kirchner, the attempted wife murderer, should be imprisoned for life. His object was murder, and it is not his fault that his wife is not dead. It is high time that stern-handed justice should take the place of maudlin sentiment. Drunkenness is simply an aggravation in this case. When a coward or wife beater wants to commit a crime, he screws himself up to the point by inhaling liquid damnation, and then, when confronted by punishment, whines out: "It was not me, Judge; it was the whisky I drank. Every one will tell you, Judge, that I am a good citizen, and a kind-hearted man when I am sober." The pitiful coward should be given two years additional for daring to make such a plea, either on his own part or the part of his attorney.

DESPERADOES.

Seated in a place of business on July 4, a gentleman made the remark: "The men who committed that highway robbery are known to the police, but the latter dare not attempt the arrest of the leader of the gang, as they are afraid of him. He is wanted at city hall, and the roundsmen know it full well; and yet he has lately paraded, boldly and openly, through the Diamond, in broad daylight, and no one dare to interfere with him." For the sake of our city officers, it is sincerely hoped that the above quotation is without foundation, although everyone present, five in all, acquiesced in its truthfulness. If there exists in East Liverpool a desperado who has such power over our officials, then the said officials will do well to step down and out, and let men of true nerve and courage take their places. Law must and will be enforced in East Liverpool. We have been under the impression that Marshal Johnson and his force are men of the right stamp—men of true nerve and courage, and we shall hold them in this light until the contrary is proven. In the meantime the law-abiding citizens demand that every effort shall be made to bring to justice the ruffians who perpetrated the late highway robbery, as no man is safe while such characters are permitted to run at large. An officer of this city, in the presence of the writer, asserted that the blackguards are known to the authorities, but that they had escaped into Virginia. Let East Liverpool be forever barred against them, under penalty of the heaviest punishment the law allows against such infamy.

DANIEL THE CHOICE.

Silver Men Fix on Him For Temporary Chairman.

HILL WILL FIGHT FOR THE PLACE.

He Is Undoubtedly the Choice of the Majority of the Silver Committee and Will Receive Their Recommendation. Fight Likely In the Convention.

CHICAGO, July 6.—National Chairman Harry called the meeting of the Democratic national committee together at 12 o'clock today for the transaction of such business as may be necessary in connection with the temporary organization of the convention, the preparation of the temporary roll of delegates and the selection of a temporary chairman.

Senator Hill is the undoubted choice of the national committee. He is also the one man from the east of national prominence who is willing to test his popularity before the convention. It has been claimed by the gold men that the silver friends of Senator Hill in both house and senate many of whom are delegates to the convention would have sufficient strength and would use their influence to secure his election as temporary chairman if he should be named. But it is now well understood that the silver men will not vote for anybody but a silver man for chairman.

Many silver men who are friends of Senator Hill have called upon him and urged him not to allow his name to be used by the national committee and not to place himself in a position where he might be humiliated by being defeated. They have assured him that they have a high regard for him and that it will be disagreeable to them to have to vote against him, but the situation is such that they must have a silver man to make the first speech of the convention. Senator Hill has advised all those who have called upon him to pursue a conservative course. He has expressed the belief that if the convention adopts a silver platform that there will surely be a bolt, and he thinks that if conservatism is shown that the bolt will be much reduced.

It is understood that Senator Hill believes that in case the convention should sustain the national committee in the selection of himself for temporary chairman that the bolt from New York state and possibly some other sections of the east will be greatly minimized. The silver men feel assured that Senator Hill will not bolt, but under the instructions of the Democratic state convention of New York the delegation acts as a unit, and if a majority should decide to bolt or to take no further part in the convention after the adoption of the silver platform, Senator Hill, who has endorsed this unit rule, would be compelled to abide by the results.

While Senator Hill is constantly advising conservatism on the part of the silver men, he has given no pledge that he would make a conservative speech if selected to preside over the convention. W. F. Sheehan, member of the national committee from New York, said: "Senator Hill, if elected temporary chairman of the convention, will make a 'gold' speech."

That the selection of a silver man for temporary chairman is assured there seems to be no question of doubt. But in the selection of such a man is where the silver men are at sea. They want a man who will control the convention and will make himself felt, but there is some difficulty in making a selection.

Senator White of California, who is a member of the delegation from that state, is one of the best presiding officers that could be found, but he will not allow himself to be put up for the purpose of defeating and, as he expresses it, humiliating Hill. He will not allow his name to be used as a candidate for temporary chairman if the national committee should name Hill for the place. It is quite possible, however, that he may be selected for permanent chairman.

There are a number of silver men who are earnestly in favor of Congressman Richardson of Tennessee for temporary chairman. But those who are pushing his candidacy are met by others who are making every effort to have Senator Harris of Tennessee made temporary or permanent chairman. Of course, if Richardson should be selected for temporary chairman another Tennessee man could not be made permanent chairman. The silver men are considerably disturbed over this situation of affairs and scarcely know which way to turn to get out of the dilemma. Ex-Congressman Bryan of Nebraska has been generally spoken of, but the fact that his delegation is contested makes his selection as temporary chairman one of doubtful expediency.

The eastern gold men have made every preparation to keep up the war even if they find themselves in a hopeless minority. Ex-Governor Russell, William C. Whitney and other leaders are strong in their judgment that there should be a fight on the temporary chairmanship and that Mr. Hill should stand. So far convinced are the easterners of this that it is said that Hill will stand, and that he has begun preparing an address that will be delivered from the floor if not from the platform; and this last statement developed an interesting phase that may mean a lively row in the convention. "The gold men shall not speak," was the cry of the rank and file of the silver men, with the exception of Jones, Blackburn and McLean. These latter said that the convention should be fair in its treatment, fairness so far as the gold standard men are concerned should mean that Russell, Fellows, Hill and Gray should be allowed to talk.

The members of the Democratic national committee who are silver men have finally agreed on a candidate for temporary chairman of the convention, and decided to recommend Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia. Senator Daniel's name may be presented to the full committee for temporary chairman by the silver members. If the gold committee, who are a majority, insist upon presenting the name of Senator Hill or some other gold man to the convention, the silver contingent will nominate Daniel. It is possible that Daniel's name will be brought before the convention by a minority report from the national committee.

BLAND HAS GREAT STRENGTH.

A Caucus Shows He Has Most of the Western States.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Bland force executed a coup by convening a caucus at the Sherman House, attended by representatives of those transmississippi states favorable to Bland. The notice of the caucus had not been widely circulated, so that the large attendance of prominent western leaders was a source of unexpected gratification to the Bland managers. Sixteen states were represented, having an aggregate of 236 votes in the convention, and from the assurances given it was believed that most, if not all of these western votes, could be relied on for Bland.

The states represented with their respective votes, were as follows: Arkansas, 16; Colorado, 8; Illinois, 48; Kansas, 20; Missouri, 34; Montana, 6; Oregon, 8; Texas, 30; Utah, 6; Washington, 8; Wyoming, 6; Arizona, 6; New Mexico, 6; Indian Territory, 6; Oklahoma, 6; Alaska, 6.

These states comprise all west of the Missouri river except California and the two Dakotas. On a call of the states a delegate from each of the states represented spoke of the great strength of the Bland sentiment.

The sentiment was that the delegates of the west, having thus met in caucus and expressed their preferences, should now exert their influence upon the delegates of the south, with a view to persuading them that the west and the south united, could command the situation.

It was explained that the Dakotas and California were not represented by reason of the fact that the delegations from these states had not caucused. The Bland managers are confident, however, that these three states will join with the others which have indicated a preference for Bland.

In some of the states represented, however, it is evident that the full delegation cannot be claimed with positiveness for Bland. Oregon has Governor Penney for its first choice, and there are said to be scattered votes for other candidates than Mr. Bland from several of the states represented at this caucus.

Before the meeting closed Senator Martin read a letter just received from San Francisco, stating that a club of 1,000 Democrats and Populists had been organized, favorable to the candidacy of Dick Bland for the presidency, and also favoring Senator Teller for secretary of the treasury in a Bland cabinet. This suggestion of Teller in Bland's cabinet evoked a double round of applause.

BOIS MEN ENCOURAGED.

They Declare Their Man Is Developing Great Strength.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The managers of the Boies campaign say they are very much encouraged by the reports received from their scouts and skirmishers who have been canvassing the incoming delegations. They declare that Boies has developed a great deal of unexpected strength and that he is the choice of two-thirds of the silver delegates. They are sensible of the rise in Bland stock, but they say that Bland will never be able to secure two-thirds of the convention, indicating that the Boies men will not favor the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. The Boies men think that the prejudice against the selection of a southern man will operate against Mr. Bland, and prevent his nomination. The Boies men say that as soon as it becomes apparent that Bland cannot be nominated Boies will then be selected.

IMPORTANT GOLD CAUCUS.

Much Aroused by Reported Intentions of the Silver Men.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The gold men have held an important caucus. Mr. Whitney spoke briefly on the situation, and called attention to the contested seats and to the fact that it was alleged that the silver men were going to throw out all delegates who did not agree with them. It caused a great deal of indignation among the men in the conference. The proposed course was declared to be revolutionary and if carried out would justify the gold men in any step they might deem advisable. It was said that the gold men could not submit to any such high-handed course.

As no such action can be taken by the silver men until the credentials committee acts no plan was proposed.

Governor Boies In Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The great event of Saturday has been the arrival of ex-Governor Horace Boies of Iowa, who takes personal charge of his own canvass for the nomination for the presidency. This is the first time in the history of American politics that an avowed candidate has attended a nominating convention. Mr. Boies simply explains his departure from all custom by saying that his friends thought he ought to come and so he came.

West Virginia Favors Bland.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Hon. Isaac C. Ralphsnyder, West Virginia's free silver leader and anti-administration candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, has arrived and is quartered at the Auditorium. He said: "I believe that Richard P. Bland is the first choice of the majority of our delegation. The expression, 'Silver Dick,' is a synonym for '16 to 1' free silver."

Spoke For Unity With England.

LONDON, July 6.—The London papers this morning devoted an unusual amount of space to very full reports of all the Fourth of July celebration which took place at different places in Europe, in which Mr. W. T. Stead, Sir Walter Besant, Mrs. Bentley of Oakland and Gilbert of Chicago and Mr. Duncan of Toronto, favored the unity of the English speaking world.

One Woman Delegate.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Mrs. Ellen B. Ferguson will be the only woman who will occupy a seat in the convention. She is an alternate from Utah.

YESTERDAY'S LEAGUE GAMES.

CINCINNATI, July 6.—This city is in holiday attire for the twenty-fifth annual reunion of the Benevolent Protective Order of Elks, which meets this week. Suspected Murderers Gone West.

GREENFIELD, O., July 6.—Crowds have visited the scene of the Alex. Gendelsberger murder in Ross county. Nothing new has developed. The blood hounds followed the trail of the murderers through the cornfield to the road, where it is supposed the fugitives had a buggy, and the trail was lost. Suspicion points to two young men, who left the country as they had had trouble with Gendelsberger before. Gendelsberger never kept any money in bank, always carrying it on his person, and only $20 had been found since his death.

Accused of Murder.

PEEBLES, O., July 6.—John Free, who is charged with the murder of the illegitimate infant of his sister-in-law, Emma Clark, in Jefferson township, on Wednesday night, after a preliminary hearing was placed in jail without bail to await the action of the grand jury. Emma Clark, the 24-year-old mother of the dead child, charged with being an accessory to the crime, has been arrested.

Killed by a Snake Bite.

PEEBLES, O., July 6.—Mrs. George Gowen, aged 47, wife of a farmer living a short distance east of here, was bitten on the arm by a snake about six weeks ago. The wound healed in a short time. The other day Mrs. McGowan experienced severe pains in her right arm. Her arm was swollen to almost double its natural size. Her condition became worse and she died in agony.

Pioneers Will Meet.

DAYTON, O., July 6.—The pioneers of Dayton will meet in the probate court room next Saturday to revive the old Montgomery County Pioneer association, which held its last annual meeting in May, 1882, at the city hall. The Farmers' association of the county will meet at the same time and place to arrange for the centennial celebration to be given in September.

Three Men Wounded.

WAVERLY, O., July 6.—A probable murder has occurred at the new Emmit house. In a free-for-all fight between William Vulgamore, Isaac Snell, Charles Vulgamore and one Hankins, all of Bay Run, this county, on one side, and William Woods, Stacy Woods and Frank Yabrams, all of Waverly, on the other, the latter trio were fearfully cut.

FOR LIFE.

If it be possible to inflict such a penalty, then Kirchner, the attempted wife murderer, should be imprisoned for life. His object was murder, and it is not his fault that his wife is not dead. It is high time that stern-handed justice should take the place of maudlin sentiment. Drunkenness is simply an aggravation in this case. When a coward or wife beater wants to commit a crime, he screws himself up to the point by inhaling liquid damnation, and then, when confronted by punishment, whines out: "It was not me, Judge; it was the whisky I drank. Every one will tell you, Judge, that I am a good citizen, and a kind-hearted man when I am sober." The pitiful coward should be given two years additional for daring to make such a plea, either on his own part or the part of his attorney.

DESPERADOES.

Seated in a place of business on July 4, a gentleman made the remark: "The men who committed that highway robbery are known to the police, but the latter dare not attempt the arrest of the leader of the gang, as they are afraid of him. He is wanted at city hall, and the roundsmen know it full well; and yet he has lately paraded, boldly and openly, through the Diamond, in broad daylight, and no one dare to interfere with him." For the sake of our city officers, it is sincerely hoped that the above quotation is without foundation, although everyone present, five in all, acquiesced in its truthfulness. If there exists in East Liverpool a desperado who has such power over our officials, then the said officials will do well to step down and out, and let men of true nerve and courage take their places. Law must and will be enforced in East Liverpool. We have been under the impression that Marshal Johnson and his force are men of the right stamp—men of true nerve and courage, and we shall hold them in this light until the contrary is proven. In the meantime the law-abiding citizens demand that every effort shall be made to bring to justice the ruffians who perpetrated the late highway robbery, as no man is safe while such characters are permitted to run at large. An officer of this city, in the presence of the writer, asserted that the blackguards are known to the authorities, but that they had escaped into Virginia. Let East Liverpool be forever barred against them, under penalty of the heaviest punishment the law allows against such infamy.

DANIEL THE CHOICE.

Silver Men Fix on Him For Temporary Chairman.

HILL WILL FIGHT FOR THE PLACE.

He Is Undoubtedly the Choice of the Majority of the Silver Committee and Will Receive Their Recommendation. Fight Likely In the Convention.

CHICAGO, July 6.—National Chairman Harrity called the meeting of the Democratic national committee together at 12 o'clock today for the transaction of such business as may be necessary in connection with the temporary organization of the convention, the preparation of the temporary roll of delegates and the selection of a temporary chairman.

Senator Hill is the undoubted choice of the national committee. He is also the one man from the east of national prominence who is willing to test his popularity before the convention. It has been claimed by the gold men that the silver friends of Senator Hill in both house and senate many of whom are delegates to the convention would have sufficient strength and would use their influence to secure his election as temporary chairman if he should be named. But it is now well understood that the silver men will not vote for anybody but a silver man for chairman.

Many silver men who are friends of Senator Hill have called upon him and urged him not to allow his name to be used by the national committee and not to place himself in a position where he might be humiliated by being defeated.

They have assured him that they have a high regard for him and that it will be disagreeable to them to have to vote against him, but the situation is such that they must have a silver man to make the first speech of the convention. Senator Hill has advised all those who have called upon him to pursue a conservative course. He has expressed the belief that if the convention adopts a silver platform that there will surely be a bolt, and he thinks that if conservatism is shown that the bolt will be much reduced.

It is understood that Senator Hill believes that in case the convention should sustain the national committee in the selection of himself for temporary chairman that the bolt from New York state and possibly some other sections of the east will be greatly minimized. The silver men feel assured that Senator Hill will not bolt, but under the instructions of the Democratic state convention of New York the delegation acts as a unit, and if a majority should decide to bolt or to take no further part in the convention after the adoption of the silver platform, Senator Hill, who has endorsed this unit rule, would be compelled to abide by the results.

While Senator Hill is constantly advising conservatism on the part of the silver men, he has given no pledge that he would make a conservative speech if selected to preside over the convention. W. F. Sheehan, member of the national committee from New York, said: "Senator Hill, if elected temporary chairman of the convention, will make a 'gold' speech."

That the selection of a silver man for temporary chairman is assured there seems to be no question of doubt. But in the selection of such a man is where the silver men are at sea. They want a man who will control the convention and will make himself felt, but there is some difficulty in making a selection.

Senator White of California, who is a member of the delegation from that state, is one of the best presiding officers that could be found, but he will not allow himself to be put up for the purpose of defeating and, as he expresses it, humiliating Hill. He will not allow his name to be used as a candidate for temporary chairman if the national committee should name Hill for the place. It is quite possible, however, that he may be selected for permanent chairman.

man Richardson of Tennessee for temporary chairman. But those who are pushing his candidacy are met by others who are making every effort to have Senator Harris of Tennessee made temporary or permanent chairman. Of course, if Richardson should be selected for temporary chairman another Tennessee man could not be made permanent chairman. The silver men are considerably disturbed over this situation of affairs and scarcely know which way to turn to get out of the dilemma. Ex-Congressman Bryan of Nebraska has been generally spoken of, but the fact that his delegation is contested makes his selection as temporary chairman one of doubtful expediency.

The eastern gold men have made every preparation to keep up the war even if they find themselves in a hopeless minority. Ex-Governor Russell, William C. Whitney and other leaders are strong in their judgment that there should be a fight on the temporary chairmanship and that Mr. Hill should stand. So far convinced are the easterners of this that it is said that Hill will stand, and that he has begun preparing an address that will be delivered from the floor if not from the platform; and this last statement developed an interesting phase that may mean a lively row in the convention. "The gold men shall not speak," was the cry of the rank and file of the silver men, with the exception of Jones, Blackburn and McLean. These latter said that the convention should be fair in its treatment, fairness so far as the gold standard men are concerned should mean that Russell, Fellows, Hill and Gray should be allowed to talk.

The members of the Democratic national committee who are silver men have finally agreed on a candidate for temporary chairman of the convention, and decided to recommend Senator John W. Daniel of Virginia. Senator Daniel's name may be presented to the full committee for temporary chairman by the silver members. If the gold members, who are a majority, insist upon presenting the name of Senator Hill or some other gold man to the convention, the silver contingent will nominate Daniel. It is possible that Daniel's name will be brought before the convention by a minority report from the national committee.

BLAND HAS GREAT STRENGTH.

A Caucus Shows He Has Most of the Western States.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Bland force executed a coup by convening a caucus at the Sherman House, attended by representatives of those transmississippi states favorable to Bland. The notice of the caucus had not been widely circulated, so that the large attendance of prominent western leaders was a source of unexpected gratification to the Bland managers. Sixteen states were represented, having an aggregate of 226 votes in the convention, and from the assurances given it was believed that most, if not all of these western votes, could be relied on for Bland.

The states represented with their respective votes, were as follows: Arkansas, 10; Colorado, 8; Illinois, 48; Kansas, 20; Missouri, 34; Montana, 6; Oregon, 8; Texas, 30; Utah, 6; Washington, 8; Wyoming, 6; Arizona, 6; New Mexico, 6; Indian Territory, 6; Oklahoma, 6; Alaska, 6.

These states comprise all west of the Missouri river except California and the two Dakotas.

On a call of the states a delegate from each of the states represented spoke of the great strength of the Bland sentiment.

The sentiment was that the delegates of the west, having thus met in caucus and expressed their preferences, should now exert their influence upon the delegates of the south, with a view to persuading them that the west and the south united, could command the situation.

It was explained that the Dakotas and California were not represented by reason of the fact that the delegations from these states had not caucused. The Bland managers are confident, however, that these three states will join with the others which have indicated a preference for Bland.

In some of the states represented, however, it is evident that the full delegation cannot be claimed with positiveness for Bland. Oregon has Governor Penney for its first choice, and there are said to be scattered votes for other candidates than Mr. Bland from several of the states represented at this caucus.

Before the meeting closed Senator Martin read a letter just received from San Francisco, stating that a club of 1,000 Democrats and Populists had been organized, favorable to the candidacy of Dick Bland for the presidency, and also favoring Senator Teller for secretary of the treasury in a Bland cabinet. This suggestion of Teller in Bland's cabinet evoked a double round of applause.

BOIS MEN ENCOURAGED.

They Declare Their Man Is Developing Great Strength.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The managers of the Boies campaign say they are very much encouraged by the reports received from their scouts and skirmish-

ers who have been canvassing the incoming delegations. They declare that Boies has developed a great deal of unexpected strength and that he is the choice of two-thirds of the silver delegates.

They are sensible of the rise in Bland stock, but they say that Bland will never be able to secure two-thirds of the convention, indicating that the Boies men will not favor the abrogation of the two-thirds rule. The Boies men think that the prejudice against the selection of a southern man will operate against Mr. Bland, and prevent his nomination. The Boies men say that as soon as it becomes apparent that Bland cannot be nominated Boies will then be selected.

IMPORTANT GOLD CAUCUS.

Much Aroused by Reported Intentions of the Silver Men.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The gold men have held an important caucus. Mr. Whitney spoke briefly on the situation, and called attention to the contested seats and to the fact that it was alleged that the silver men were going to throw out all delegates who did not agree with them.

It caused a great deal of indignation among the men in the conference. The proposed course was declared to be revolutionary and if carried out would justify the gold men in any step they might deem advisable. It was said that the gold men could not submit to any such high-handed course.

As no such action can be taken by the silver men until the credentials committee acts no plan was proposed.

Governor Boies In Chicago.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The great event of Saturday has been the arrival of ex-Governor Hosiage Boies of Iowa, who takes personal charge of his own canvass for the nomination for the presidency. This is the first time in the history of American politics that an avowed candidate has attended a nominating convention. Mr. Boies simply explains his departure from all custom by saying that his friends thought he ought to come and so he came.

West Virginia Favors Bland.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Hon. Isaac C. Ralphsnyder, West Virginia's free silver leader and anti-administration candidate for the Democratic nomination for governor, has arrived and is quartered at the Auditorium. He said: "I believe that Richard P. Bland is the first choice of the majority of our delegation. The expression, 'Silver Dick,' is a synonym for '16 to 1' free silver."

spoke For Unity With England.

LONDON, July 6.—The London papers this morning devoted an unusual amount of space to very full reports of all the Fourth of July celebrations which took place at different places in Europe, in which Mr. W. T. Stead, Sir Walter Besant, Mrs. Bentley of Oakland and Gilbert of Chicago and Mr. Duncan of Toronto, favored the unity of the English speaking world.

One Woman Delegate.

CHICAGO, July 6.—Mrs. Ellen B. Ferguson will be the only woman who will occupy a seat in the convention. She is an alternate from Utah.

JOHN McLEAN HAS GREAT POWER.

However, He Will Be Satisfied With the Second Place—Teller a Dangerous Quantity, Nevertheless—Bland and Boies in the Lead—The Platform.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Teller boom seems to have utterly collapsed. The talk of the existence of the senatorial cabal plotting to secure Teller's nomination has aroused among many of the incoming delegates a feeling of the most bitter and passionate resentment and the cry is heard everywhere that the nominee must be a Democrat. It is considered almost treason to suggest Teller. This strong revolt against what is deemed an attempt at senatorial dictation seems to have checked the cabal. As the free silver Republican and the Populist leaders realize that the game is slipping away from them, they are inclined to grow ugly in their desperation. The former have begun to predict defeat if a Democrat is nominated on the ground that no matter how disposed they might be to support a Democrat on a free silver platform their friends in the Western states would not follow them bag and baggage into the Democratic party.

The Populists could with difficulty be restrained from issuing an address saying they could not support a Democrat. The Teller interview from Denver printed here saying he would support the nominee was a blow to the Populists. Although the possibility of Teller's selection now seems to have vanished, the Democratic silver leaders, who still believe that he is the most available candidate, though they may for the present have been driven out into the open and forced to publicly espouse the cause of some other candidate are powerful men and skilled and trained political generals and the plot to nominate Teller must, until a nomination is actually made, be reckoned with as a deadfall into which the convention might be precipitated by shrewd manipulation if opportunity offers.

The revolt against the cabal has unquestionably had the effect of hastening declarations by arriving delegates in favor of the two leading candidates, Bland and Boies, and both claim large acquisitions. There is some doubt as to Alford's position, and if he should refuse to support Bland, it would go hard with him. The legitimate character of the declaration of the Illinois delegation for the Missouri candidate, which

Three Great Tents Pitched on the White House Lot For the Meetings—A Big Chorus of 4,000 Voices—Runs Arranged For Bicyclists.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—Between 40,000 and 50,000 visitors to the Capitol City are expected during the next ten days to attend the sessions of the fifteenth international Christian Endeavor convention which begins on Wednesday, the 8th inst., and continues through to the 13th.

It is almost certain that the gathering will be the greatest of its kind ever held. A combined seating capacity of 40,000 will be available at any time during the convention and the meeting places will be more numerous than heretofore. Three great tents pitched on the White lot, a government reservation just south of the president's mansion, a large hall and a number of the churches will constitute the principal auditoriums and at certain times meetings will be held simultaneously in all. The city is being finely decorated for the convention.

A prominent feature will be the great chorus of about 4,000 voices. A number of runs for bicyclists to interesting points in the vicinity have been arranged. The program for the meetings of the convention is about completed. In general, it contemplates early morning prayer meetings in the churches of the various denominations represented from 6:30 till 7:15 o'clock. From 9:30 o'clock on toward noon are to be held the meetings for addresses, reports, topics and the discussion of various topics in the large tents and some of the halls.

In the afternoons scattered throughout the convention days there will be denominational rallies in the several churches, officers and committee conferences, denominational missionary rallies and an informal reception to all officers of the state, territorial and provincial Endeavor unions by the officers and trustees of the United Society of Christian Endeavor. The evening sessions are to be similar in many respects to those held during the morning.

NATURAL GAS PRODUCTION

Export Joseph D. Weeks Makes a Valuable Report.

WASHINGTON, July 6.—The natural gas production in the United States in 1895 is reviewed in a report of the geological survey compiled by Expert Joseph D. Weeks. The total value was $13,006,650, against $13,954,400 in 1894. The value of the product consumed was $7,920,187, and $9,768,230 was the value of coal or wood displaced by gas. The total pipe laid was 43,830,341 feet, and producing wells opened 3,826.

The value of the consumption during 1895-96 was greatest in 1888, when it was $2,629,875. From then to 1890 the decrease was rapid and in the past four years there has been a gradual decline. The most notable feature of the year was the decreasing pressure in all of the natural gas fields of the country. The life of the wells also has been greatly reduced.

A NEGRO UPRISING.

Threatened to Lynch the Father of a Hanged Negro's Victim.

ROCKVILLE, Md., July 6.—The excitement caused by the lynching of the negro Sydney Randolph, which had almost entirely died out has been stirred to a high pitch. It became rumored that the colored people in the vicinity of Gaithersburg had organized a party and were coming to Rockville to lynch R. L. Buxton, the father of the Buxton family that was assaulted and of which crime Randolph was accused and for which he was lynched.

Buxton spent the night with friends, guarded by several able-bodied men. There is no doubt that the colored people of the county are very indignant at the lynching of Randolph and are open in their denunciation of the act. It is stated also that they are bitter against Buxton, claiming that he knew more about the affair than he is willing to tell.

A handsome Republican badge having excellent likenesses of McKinley and Hobart, and the words "McKinley Club, East Liverpool," has been received by a prominent member of the organization as a sample. TELLER'S BOOM FLAT.

Talk of a Plot in His Favor Did Injury.

ing of all other questions.

The tariff question, especially, they desire to be handled gingerly lest it drive from them the free silver Republicans of the west who are moderate protectionists. Others, on the other hand, think there should be a regular Democratic platform covering all the pending issues of the day. Some even favor a very radical tariff plank. All this bodes ill for the prospects of a short convention. The gold men led by Mr. Whitney profess to be encouraged by the outlook. Their plans seem to be based on future contingencies. Having failed to make an impression on the solid phalanx of silver, their purpose seems to be to stir up strife and take advantage of such dissensions as may be developed in the opposition. The great advantage which they possess, always the strength of a hopeless minority, is their compactness.

McKINLEY CHANGED CHURCHES.

Went to Hear a Lutheran Minister Preach a Patriotic Sermon.

CANTON, O., July 6.—Governor McKinley went to church Sunday, but instead of going to the First Methodist Episcopal, of which he is a trustee, and where he and his mother usually occupy a pew, he went to Trinity Lutheran, where Rev. Dr. D. H. Bantlin preached a patriotic sermon, appropriate to the Fourth of July season.

Governor and Mrs. McKinley took their customary drive during the afternoon and also received callers. Governor McKinley's present plans contemplated that one's absence from Canton in the immediate future, and that is a day in Cleveland, when he will probably be the guest of Mr. Hanna. He may go to the Cleveland centennial for a short time. Pressing invitations have been given him, but he has not fully decided.

HARRITY IS RE-ELECTED.

The Pennsylvania Delegation Chooses Officers at a Caucus.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Pennsylvania delegation has re-elected William F. Harrity a member of the national committee. Mr. Harrity was also chosen chairman of the delegation. Other committeemen were elected, as follows:

Resolutions, Robert T. Wright of Lehigh; credentials, State Senator J. Henry Cochran of Lycoming; permanent organization, Charles H. Noyes of Warren; honorary vice president, Congressman B. F. Meyers of Dauphin; notification of candidates, John T. Lenahan of Luzerne; rules and order of business, Charles A. Fagan of Allegheny; honorary secretary, Miller S. Allen of Susquehanna.

HAWAIIANS DISAPPOINTED.

Expected the Republican Platform to Strongly Declare for Protection.

SAN FRANCISCO, July 6.—News from Honolulu by the steamer City of Peking says the nomination of McKinley created no surprise in that city. Although he is the author of a bill that injured that country in a commercial way, it is not believed that he is hostile to the Hawaiian Republic and many people are of the opinion that he is in favor of annexation.

The plank in the Republican platform, referring to Hawaii is very disappointing to the American residents of this country. Many believed that annexation would be made one of the issues of the campaign.

George Fred Williams Converted.

CHICAGO, July 6.—The Massachusetts delegation has arrived to fight for gold. Governor Russell and ex-Congressman John E. Russell, who came with Mr. Whitney and the New York gold leaders. Much interest attached to the arrival of the delegation because of the announcement that six out of the 30 delegates were for free silver. Judge Gorham said there were but three—George Fred Williams, Jere T. O'Sullivan and John O'Gara. Mr. Williams, whose announcement of his conversion to the cause of the white men earned for him the praises of the silver men, said that he did not know exactly how many silver men there were in the delegation.

Deadly Duel in Kentucky.

RUSSELLVILLE, Ky., July 6.—A deadly duel has taken place near Adairville. Dick Younger went to town drunk. As he rode out of town he fired his pistol. H. H. Harmon, the town marshal, jumped on a horse and started after Younger. An hour later both men were found dead about one mile from the town.

Caught His Wife at Last.

SISTERSVILLE, W. Va., July 6.—W. J. Abbott of Virginia, who has traveled 1,000 miles after his wife and Yost, the man with whom she eloped, has found them at the Pennsylvania House here. Yost was arrested and Mrs. Abbott went home with her husband.

The river is falling slowly. The Ben Hur passed down at noon today, and the Keystone is due at 9 o'clock tonight. There are no boats up today.

The picnics given Saturday by the Lotus and Alvin clubs, at Columbian Park and Rock Spring, were well attended and thoroughly enjoyed by all.

A discharge of fire works Saturday evening caused Charles Larkin's sawing, Sixth street, to take fire. It was let down, however, and the small blaze put out.

The little son of Willis Nicholas fell from the porch at the residence of his grandfather, Mr. Grosscross, on Saturday afternoon, and sustained a fracture of his left arm.

Two young girls attempted to board a boat near the glassworks yesterday afternoon, but were thrown into the water by the waves of a passing steamer. They were rescued without difficulty.

A large picnic will celebrate the opening of Mineral Springs, near Fairview, on the 14th. As the grounds are near Silverthorne driving park, bicycle and horse races will help to enliven the occasion.

While at work in his stable, Saturday night, Doctor Wauamaker was kicked below the knee by a strange horse, and painfully injured. Two physicians were called, and bandaged the wound, which proved to be three inches in length.

The Akron pottery closed down Friday last, and will resume work next Monday. The factory has been unusually busy lately, and the shut down would be of less duration were it not that a few needed repairs are being made.

Grant Myler sprained his wrist while exercising Friday evening. As Myler is a member of the class to be taken by Director Hertel to Steubenville, the director is not as confident as he was of his class getting good place at the Turnfest.

Mrs. Sarah Haughton, of Washington street, this morning received the sad intelligence that her brother, J. F. Barnes, of Indiana, Pa., had died last evening, after a lingering illness from stomach trouble. The lady left on the noon train to attend the funeral.

The matter of summer cars for the street railway has again been discussed, and it is announced that they will be put on at once. They will be smaller than those in use a few years ago, but will be a decided improvement on the present equipment of the line.

Mrs. John Kichner, who was shot by her husband last week, is much better, and her recovery is confidently expected. Her son, William Holly, came here from Sistersville and returned this morning. Kichner was taken to Lisbon on Friday night, and is now in the county jail.

Twelve Rechabites left for Wellston this morning to attend the annual session of the Grand Tent, which convenes at that place today, Tuesday and Wednesday. The principal business to be transacted is the election of officers and the selection of the place where the next convention will be held.

A party of young people of this city were elegantly entertained by Miss Georgia Dawson at her home near Ohioville on Friday evening. The residence was handsomely decorated in cut flowers and evergreen, and presented a beautiful appearance. The mandolin club provided music for the dancers, and lunch was served at midnight.

A handsome Republican badge having excellent likenesses of McKinley and Hobart, and the words "McKinley Club, East Liverpool," has been received by a prominent member of the organization as a sample. The club will probably enter into negotiations with the manufacturers of the badges for a large supply which they will sell at an unusually low rate.

The active class of the Turner society went to Steubenville this afternoon to take part in the sixteenth annual turnfest of the Pittsburgh Turn Bisk. The class is made up of Instructor Will Hertel, Will Liebschner, Grant Myler, Oscar Reynolds, Porter Keys, Sam Owen, Will and George Schepp, Percy Albright and D. Zange. Although handicapped by accident the boys expect to win a prize or two.

was to carry with it the influence of Governor Altgeld is questioned. It is believed, however, by Altgeld's close friends that as between the two candidates he would be for Bland.

The Matthews boom seems to have been shattered by the row in the Indiana delegation between the gold and silver delegates over the question of returning National Committeeman Sherin. It is evident that Governor Matthews, made, perhaps, a fatal blunder in insisting that several of his personal friends who were for gold should go on the delegation. The Blackburn boom does not seem to be progressing, but John R. McLean of Ohio, the proprietor of the Cincinnati Enquirer, is developing into a power in the convention. He is surrounded by trained politicians whose touch is felt everywhere. Although they are quietly urging him for first place on the ticket, it is well understood that his aim is to secure the nomination for vice president. His corporate interests are militating against him, but his power is evident, and there is a prevailing feeling that he can secure a second place on the ticket. It is said that the Bland managers have tried to make a combination with him despite the fact that it is pretty well known that Mr. McLean himself believes that Teller would be the strongest man to nominate.

Considerable discord is developing among the silver men over the rivalries naturally created by the candidates, and there is also dissension over the candidates, and there is also dissension over the platform. Many of the leaders are strongly in favor of a single declaration for free silver and the practical ignor-

BROKEN IN TWO PLACES

Attorney J. J. Purinton Kicked
By a Horse.

LEG FRACTURED ABOVE THE KNEE

While Driving to Town He Was Com-
pelled to Fix the Harness, and the Horse Became Frightened—Painful but
not Dangerous, and He Will Get Well.

Attorney J. J. Purinton, president of
council and one of the best known men
of the city, is lying at his home on Fifth
street suffering all the pain attendant
upon a broken leg.

Mr. Purinton has a country residence
near Calcutta, and he started to drive
to the city this morning. When near Riverview cemetery, the harness broke,
and he found it necessary to get under
the horse to fix it. While in this position the horse kicked him, the full force
of the blow being received on the leg
which was affected by white swelling
when Mr. Purinton was a young man.
He was knocked into the gutter, and the
horse ran away. It was eventually
stopped at the residence of Burt Purinton
in Gardendale. Soon after the accident Harry Watson rode by on his wheel, and gave the alarm. He summoned Richard Baxter from his
house nearby, and with the help of
Janitor Whitacre, of the cemetery, Mr.
Purinton was carried to bed. Watson
then came to the city, and got Doctor
Ogdon, Doctor Norris and Doctor Saint
to attend him. He also called out the
patrol, and later in the day the injured
man was brought to town. Examination showed that the leg was broken in two places above the knee. The fractures
are five inches apart, but the physicians
think there will be no danger. Mr.
Purinton was getting along as well as
could be expected this afternoon.

received the handsome charter of the Shoemakers' Union, lately organized in
this city. The charter and credentials
will be handed over to the union
tonight, at their regular meeting. The Sons of Crispin started off with a nice
membership, and expect to enroll all the
workers in their line in East Liverpool.

POTTERS IN SESSION

The Brotherhood Is Holding
Its Annual Meeting.

OVER FIFTY DELEGATES HERE

Little Business Done This Morning—Reports of Officers This Afternoon—The Convention Will Finish Business on Thursday.

The annual convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters
began in Brotherhood hall this morning,
and will continue until Thursday.

The organization is made up of pot-
ters in all the potters towns west of the Alleghenies, and has a large membership. The attendance of delegates is large, but some locals have not sent
their full quota because of the hard
times. There are, however, about 50 pot-
ters in town, and they are being well
cared for by their friends. The committee on credentials reported this
morning, and the convention was
ready for business this afternoon. The reports of officers were commenced, and
as some are long and give their work in
detail, this branch will not be completed today. There will be no session
this evening, but the work will be pushed tomorrow. Among the most important business will be the election
of officers, but as that does not take
place until Thursday there will be little
talk about candidates. Whether there
will be any changes in the list remains
to be seen, but to the present time
there are no signs of a contest. Tonight
will be devoted by local members of the order to showing their visiting friends
the city, this being the first visit of
many to this place.

THE WOMAN IN COURT.

A Dangerous Witness and a Two Edged
Sword on Cross Examination.

There is an agreement among lawyers not to put a woman on the witness
stand if it can be avoided.

"I always subpoena women," says a
lawyer of experience. "It keeps them
harmless, but I never use them unless
my case is desperate." A lawyer presented for reasons preserves an impersonal
attitude by retiring behind the law. It
is a sad but long established fact, it seems, that the law when it forbids a
wife testifying in her husband's favor
intimates her inability to speak the
truth, for, doubtless, some personal reason she may fib against him on oath if
she will. With the best intentions in
the world, a woman will state conclusions instead of facts. Her mental tendency is to form some preconceived theory, and the facts are unconsciously
twisted to support it.

In consequence of these mental idio-
syncrasies women witnesses are carefully "prepared." After a lawyer has eliminated the "I saids" and "he saids"
from her narrative and has ruthlessly
brought her personal importance to the matters she has testified to to the least appreciable quantity and has endeavored to throw into relief the facts of importance to his side, he folds his hands,
closes his eyes and tries to realize then
and there all his stock of faith.

"Let me give you my dying advice,"
said Rufus Choate. "Never cross examine a woman. They cannot disintegrate
the story they have once told. They cannot eliminate the fact that is for
you from that which is against you.
They go for the whole thing, and the
moment you begin to cross examine one
of them, instead of being bitten by one
rattlesnake, you are bitten by a whole
barrelful. I never, except in a case absolutely desperate, cross examine a
woman."

Judge Barrett has given these rules
for cross examination:

"First.—Never ask a question of
which the answer might harm you.

"Second.—Never cross examine any
witness over ten minutes.

"Third.—Never cross examine a woman."

There is a whiplash to a woman's
speech that will crack through the current cross examination.

"Did the defendant give you this umbrella?"

"Yes, but I paid for it."

• Speeches of this sort, that any nimble
witted woman can toss from the tip of
her tongue, make lawyers modest and
judges shy. These are advantages before the law not lightly to be relinquish-
ed.—San Francisco Examiner.

Tan Spots Over Dogs' Eyes.

These spots are believed to afford an example of protective markings perpetrated by natural selection. They seem to have been acquired at a comparatively
recent period, when the dog had become semidomesticated. The original
dog was red and did not possess these
spots. When he slept, he hid himself
from possible enemies, but this the
semidomesticated dog could not always
do. Now, when the color changed by
domestication and selected breeding,
and dogs became pied and black, those
which had spots over their eyes would
look when asleep as though their eyes
were open and still on watch. Therefore their enemies would be deceived,
and they would be less liable to be killed during sleep than dogs which had
no such spots. Thus they survived and transmitted their peculiarity to their
offspring. These spots are supposed to be the most, if not the only, permanent markings on dogs.

PRECEDENCE QUESTION.

It Was a Matter of Importance and Annoyance In the Past.

The precedence due to guests was a
matter of vast importance in the seven-
teenth century, which the gentleman
usher at Berkeley castle was expected
to have at his fingers' ends. It had become very complicated under the commonwealth. There were peers, created
by the king over the water, not recognized at home. There were the members, not peers, of Cromwell's upper
house, and titles of his granting which
the royalists sniffed at.

Mrs. Isham writes feelingly of the
trials of hostesses when etiquette was
reviving a little. Neighbors are "so dis-
contented about you for place as they
be never to be reconciled again; this is
a thing I do much hate. Any one shall go before me as will, and if Sir
Harry Blunthe axed Harroles (Harrold)
before he came downes, my Thinkes
heare is so many buriels aboute, as none shoulde thinke of Place." She is very proud of a new page. "You be to see
the fast of my small officer. I thinke it may be a pretty site to see him a Horse-
backe, and in Boots, for since he nevore
had Boots on before; he is to call at Lee
for a letter, so he is not to stay longe
with you. This boy as we have is good
for nothing but his Boots, and that pleases Panbye, and so because he is pleased I am pleased. You will be a weary with reading these scribled Lines,
so I reite your ever Lovinge Ante, E.
Isham."—Longman's Magazine.

He Was Black In the Face.

One of the attendants at a local hospital, whose duty it is to apply the ether
to patients about to be operated upon,
often causes the doctors much annoyance
by reason of his overcaution. It is rarely
that he can be persuaded to apply enough
of the anesthetic to produce the desired
effect without continual urging on the
part of the doctor who is to use the
knife. The other day a patient was about to be operated upon and the old
difficulty arose. "Now, doctor, he's
really had quite enough," remarked the attendant. The doctor thought otherwise, and insisted upon more ether.
Remonstrating against applying any
more, the attendant was about to comply with the doctor's command when he
suddenly jumped back, exclaiming:
"My God, doctor, the patient is dying.
He's black in the face!" "Of course he
is, you fool," replied the doctor.
"If you'll look close enough you'll find
he is a negro!"—Philadelphia Record

BROKEN IN TWO PLACES

Attorney J. J. Purinton Kicked
By a Horse.

LEG FRACTURED ABOVE THE KNEE

While Driving to Town He Was Com-
pelled to Fix the Harness, and the
Horse Became Frightened—Painful but
not Dangerous, and He Will Get Well.

Attorney J. J. Purinton, president of
council and one of the best known men
of the city, is lying at his home on Fifth
street suffering all the pain attendant
upon a broken leg.

Mr. Purinton has a country residence
near Calcutta, and he started to drive
to the city this morning. When near Riverview cemetery, the harness broke,
and he found it necessary to get under
the horse to fix it. While in this position
the horse kicked him, the full force of the blow being received on the leg
which was affected by white swelling
when Mr. Purinton was a young man.
He was knocked into the gutter, and the
horse ran away. It was eventually
stopped at the residence of Burt Purinton
in Gardendale. Soon after the accident Harry Watson rode by on his wheel, and gave the alarm. He summoned Richard Baxter from his
house nearby, and with the help of
Janitor Whitacre, of the cemetery, Mr.
Purinton was carried to bed. Watson
then came to the city, and got Doctor
Ogden, Doctor Norris and Doctor Saint
to attend him. He also called out the
patrol, and later in the day the injured
man was brought to town. Examination showed that the leg was broken in
two places above the knee. The fractures
are five inches apart, but the physicians
think there will be no danger. Mr.
Purinton was getting along as well as
could be expected this afternoon.

severely burned Saturday evening by a firecracker exploding in its face.

Gertrude Woodward, while walking
with her aunt, Miss Cawood, on Washington street Saturday night, was Charter at Hand.

Organizer John Powell, of the American Federation of Labor, this morning
received the handsome charter of the Shoemakers' Union, lately organized in
this city. The charter and credentials
will be handed over to the union
tonight, at their regular meeting. The Sons of Crispin started off with a nice
membership, and expect to enroll all the
workers in their line in East Liverpool.

POTTERS IN SESSION

The Brotherhood Is Holding
Its Annual Meeting.

OVER FIFTY DELEGATES HERE

Little Business Done This Morning—Re-
ports of Officers This Afternoon—The Convention Will Finish Business on Thursday.

The annual convention of the National Brotherhood of Operative Potters
began in Brotherhood hall this morning,
and will continue until Thursday.

The organization is made up of pot-
ters in all the potting towns west of the Alleghenies, and has a large member-
ship. The attendance of delegates is
large, but some locals have not sent
their full quota because of the hard
times. There are, however, about 50 pot-
ters in town, and they are being well
cared for by their friends. The committee on credentials reported this
morning, and the convention was
ready for business this afternoon. The
reports of officers were commenced, and
as some are long and give their work in
detail, this branch will not be completed today. There will be no session
this evening, but the work will be pushed tomorrow. Among the most
important business will be the election
of officers, but as that does not take
place until Thursday there will be little
talk about candidates. Whether there
will be any changes in the list remains
to be seen, but to the present time
there are no signs of a contest. Tonight
will be devoted by local members of the order to showing their visiting friends
the city, this being the first visit of
many to this place.

THE WOMAN IN COURT.

A Dangerous Witness and a Two Edged
Sword on Cross Examination.

There is an agreement among law-
yers not to put a woman on the witness
stand if it can be avoided.

"I always subpoena women," says a
lawyer of experience. "It keeps them
harmless, but I never use them unless
my case is desperate." A lawyer pressed for reasons preserves an impersonal
attitude by retiring behind the law. It
is a sad but long established fact, it
seems, that the law when it forbids a
wife testifying in her husband's favor
intimates her inability to speak the
truth, for, doubtless, some personal reason she may fit against him on oath if
she will. With the best intentions in
the world, a woman will state conclusions instead of facts. Her mental ten-
dency is to form some preconceived theory, and the facts are unconsciously
twisted to support it.

In consequence of these mental idio-
syncrasies women witnesses are carefully "prepared." After a lawyer has eliminated the "I said" and "he said" from her narrative and has ruthlessly
brought her personal importance to the matters she has testified to the least appreciable quantity and has endeavored
to throw into relief the facts of importance to his side, he folds his hands,
closes his eyes and tries to realize then
and there all his stock of faith.

"Let me give you my dying advice,"
said Rufus Choate. "Never cross examine a woman. They cannot disintegrate
the story they have once told. They
cannot eliminate the fact that is for
you from that which is against you.
They go for the whole thing, and the
moment you begin to cross examine one
of them, instead of being bitten by one
rattlesnake, you are bitten by a whole
barrelful. I never, except in a case absolutely desperate, cross examine a
woman."

Judge Barrett has given these rules
for cross examination:

"First.—Never ask a question of
which the answer might harm you.

"Second.—Never cross examine any
witness over ten minutes.

"Third.—Never cross examine a wom-
an."

There is a whiplash to a woman's
speech that will crack through the cur-
test cross examination.

"Did the defendant give you this um-
brella?"

"Yes, but I paid for it."

• Recches of this sort, that any nimble
witted woman can toss from the tip of
her tongue, make lawyers modest and
judges shy. These are advantages before the law not lightly to be relinquish-
ed.—San Francisco Examiner.

Tan Spots Over Dogs' Eyes.

These spots are believed to afford an
example of protective markings perpetuated by natural selection. They seem to have been acquired at a comparatively
recent period, when the dog had become semidomesticated. The original
dog was red and did not possess these
spots. When he slept, he hid himself
from possible enemies, but this the
semidomesticated dog could not always
do. Now, when the color changed by
domestication and selected breeding,
and dogs became pied and black, those
which had spots over their eyes would
look when asleep as though their eyes
were open and still on watch. There-
fore their enemies would be deceived,
and they would be less liable to be kill-
ed during sleep than dogs which had
no such spots. Thus they survived and
transmitted their peculiarity to their
offspring. These spots are supposed to
be the most, if not the only, permanent markings on dogs.

PRECEDENCE QUESTION.

It Was a Matter of Importance and An
noyance In the Past.

The precedence due to guests was a
matter of vast importance in the seven-
teenth century, which the gentleman
usher at Berkeley castle was expected
to have at his fingers' ends. It had be-
come very complicated under the commonwealth. There were peers, created
by the king over the water, not recognized at home. There were the members, not peers, of Cromwell's upper
house, and titles of his granting which
the royalists sniffed at.

Mrs. Isham writes feelingly of the
trials of hostesses when etiquette was
reviving a little. Neighbors are "so dis-
contented about you for place as they
be never to be reconciled again; this is
a thing I do much hate. Any one shall go before me as will, and I'll sit Harry Blunte axed Harroles (Harolds)
before he came down, my Thinker
hears is so many buriels about, as none should thinke of Place." She is very proud of a new page. "You be to see
the fast of my small officer. I think it
may be a pretty site to see him a Horsebacke, and in Boots, for since he never
had Boots on before; he is to call at Lee
for a letter, so he is not to stay long
with you. This boy as we have is good
for nothing but his Boots, and that pleases Pannye, and so because he is pleased I am pleased. You will be a weary with reading these scribbled Lines,
so I reite your ever Lovinge Ante, E.
Isham."—Longman's Magazine.

He Was Black In the Face.

One of the attendants at a local hospital, whose duty it is to apply the ether
to patients about to be operated upon,
often causes the doctors much annoyance
by reason of his overcaution. It is rarely
that he can be persuaded to apply enough
of the anesthetic to produce the desired
effect without continual urging on the
part of the doctor who is to use the
knife. The other day a patient was
about to be operated upon and the old
difficulty arose. "Now, doctor, he's
really had quite enough," remarked the
attendant. The doctor thought other-
wise, and insisted upon more ether.
Remonstrating against applying any
more, the attendant was about to com-
ply with the doctor's command when he
suddenly jumped back, exclaiming:
"My God, doctor, the patient is dying.
He's black in the face!" "Of course he
is, you fool," replied the doctor.
"If you'll look close enough you'll find
he is a negro!"—Philadelphia Record.
